Hi all, RE: Meeting - Thu 24th Jan 2016, 15:00 - 18:00. It was not possible to book one room for our meeting so I've booked a room from 15:00 - 16:00 and a study area from 16:00 - 18:00. -Group Study Room 3, Templeman Library from 25/01/2019 15:00 until 25/01/2019 16:00. -Group Study Booth 4, Templeman Library from 24/01/2019 16:00 until 24/01/2019 18:00.

Did we unanimously agreed on the next "scrumlords"?

Valentia 24-Jan-19 01:28 PM

Nope but we can change it

Its temporary

Kazoo2 24-Jan-19 01:29 PM

I don't mind it.

Valentia 24-Jan-19 01:29 PM

Either way where are we meeting cause that post is really hard to read

That's actually really weird, @Jamie?

Kazoo2 24-Jan-19 01:32 PM
No it's 24
Jamie made a mistake

Valentia 24-Jan-19 01:32 PM
Are you sure?

Kazoo2 24-Jan-19 01:32 PM
He's double checking
Apparently he copy pasted from the email so if it's the wrong time he booked the wrong time.

Valentia 24-Jan-19 01:33 PM
Lmao nice
People free on friday at 3pm then?

Kazoo2 24-Jan-19 01:33 PM
I'll double check
Meeting at 4 just like is said above

Valentia 24-Jan-19 01:34 PM

Meeting adjourned. Everyone should take a look at the use cases on moodle so we can figure out what we're doing with that by the meeting on Monday.

Also, we need to figure out when everyone's free for a meeting about the UML (among other things) on Monday, and book a room for that.

Kazoo2 25-Jan-19 07:09 PM

What documents we making, who is making them, when we meeting Monday

Wanna figure that out tonight if possible

izlimix 25-Jan-19 07:11 PM

I'm free 15:00-17:00 on Monday

Kazoo2 25-Jan-19 07:14 PM

Jamie and me got os

3-4

We could meet at 4 if that's cool with everyone

Aim for 1 hour meeting assess work done over the weekend

izlimix 25-Jan-19 07:15 PM

That sounds good.

Kazoo2 25-Jan-19 07:16 PM

Okay let's wait for the other two to confirm the. I'll book something

Valentia 25-Jan-19 07:16 PM

Im good with that but only till 5

Kazoo2 25-Jan-19 07:16 PM

Yeah 1 hour meeting

Also we should start working on regulations

Jamie can draft up the disciplinary rules if that's cool.

I can do meetings or quality assurance

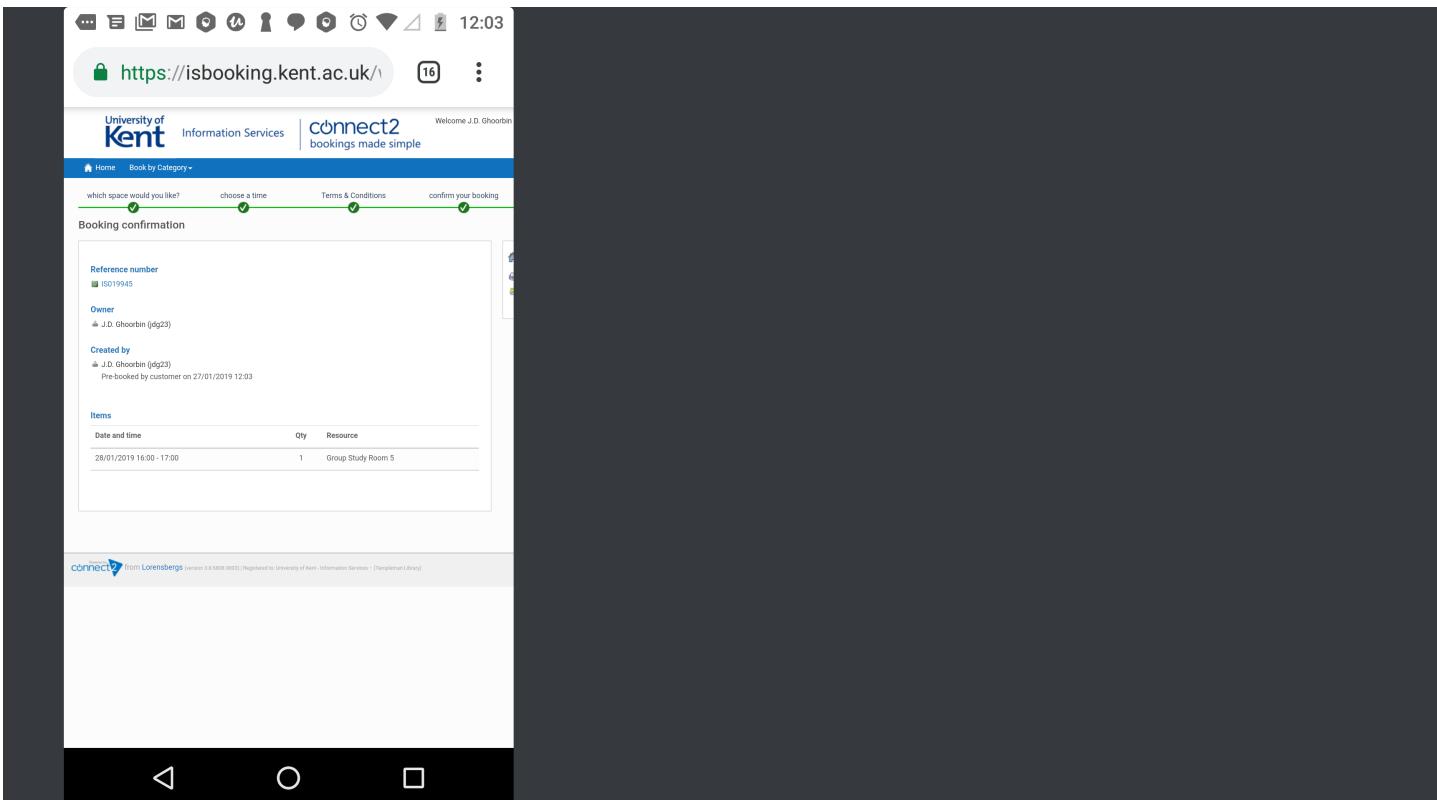

jdg23 26-Jan-19 08:50 AM

Yeah I'm good with that

Can we all get familiar with the use cases and UML if possible

jdg23 27-Jan-19 12:05 PM

izlimix 27-Jan-19 03:31 PM

Thanks for booking the room

izlimix 28-Jan-19 12:00 AM

There're a couple of things worth asking about in the use cases that I can see.

1st: where's the authentication server going to be? Do we have to make that as well, or will it be provided? (If it's provided, the details of how we're supposed to interact w/ it for when we have to implement it.) (If it isn't provided, how they'd like us to format the requests and confirmation)

2nd: why would directors and HR employees like to log in with lower privileges? (What would directors even be able to access in that case?)

3rd: can the HR director manage HR as well, or must they delegate to their employees? (Since atm they're just a director, so their only write-privilege is when reviewing)

4th: there seem to be new record types made by the server and database. (E.g. authorisation-check record). Where are these stored? Who can read them? (Guessing they can't be modified. But we should ask anyway.) What does it record? (Timestamp, what was requested, who requested it?)

5th: perform review and allocate reviewer (among other use cases) say someone "is informed of" sth. How are they informed?

6th: Allocate reviewer's alternate path says "Allocation remains incomplete". So is it stored but not acted upon? (That sounds like it would clog up the filesystem) Can they edit it after it fails and resubmit it? Can they cancel the action, so it's not made?

izlimix 28-Jan-19 03:16 PM

UML:

1 (Authenticate.di): Isn't a manager a type of employee?

2 (Review.di): Authorisation check should have an arrow pointing to HR Database, bc authorization check records are stored in that database, right?

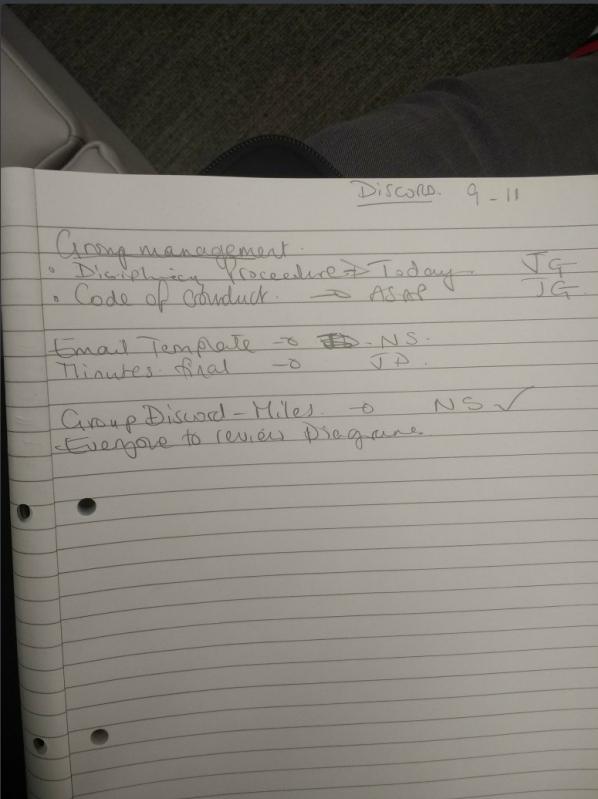

Valentia 28-Jan-19 04:00 PM

Question for David: Should we also submit meeting minutes, or does he just want the minutes template?

izlimix 28-Jan-19 10:11 PM
@everyone Email Template and US Document Template have been moved to Planning Documents.

Valentia 28-Jan-19 10:16 PM
Cool

jdg23 29-Jan-19 10:10 AM
The drafted email for Miles is in the 'Client comms' folder. See notes included in the document for required changes.

jdg23 29-Jan-19 08:05 PM
Hi all, Miles has responded to our email. I will have a look at it later this evening. Also @izlimix I will also look at the minutes then.

Kazoo2 29-Jan-19 08:17 PM
I honestly have a lot of trouble understanding what miles is telling us (edited)
If you all could read over it maybe it's just me

izlimix 29-Jan-19 11:16 PM
@jdg23 Thanks for forwarding the email. Miles seems to have misunderstood the "can the HR director manage HR themselves" question. In hindsight, "can the HR director also amend documents like employees in their department" would have been better wording.
The new records now have concrete contents, but nobody has read access. This seems weird, though maybe directors can still read them?

I think the "authorisation check" association question was meant to address an inconsistency between the diagram and scenario, but I'm not sure rn.

Miles has stated that we need to implement the authentivation server and authorisation actor ourselves.

@Kazoo2 The rest seems relatively straightforward to me, though if there's sth specific I can take another look at it?

@jdg23 The contents of the disciplinary procedure document seem alright to me, though I feel like red cards being called Stage 4 might be a bit confusing, considering that it seems only 1 step away from 3. I'm on my phone rn, so I'll try to check the formatting tomorrow?

jdg23 29-Jan-19 11:36 PM

Thanks @izlimix I will make changes to make it less confusing tomorrow morning.
I am going to look through the minutes now
Content of the minutes is fine. Just needs to be written up in neat.

jdg23 30-Jan-19 10:47 AM

Changes made to Disciplinary procedure document.

izlimix 30-Jan-19 10:45 PM

Minutes from the 24th, 25th, 28th (both in person and over discord) and 29th should now be complete. Sorry for the delay, as I was bed-bound with a headache last night and earlier. I should still have contacted the group, though. Unsure whether minutes for the 22nd should be written up in the old format, as a transcription of the handwritten document is within the handwritten folder.

@jdg23 Disciplinary procedure mentions "the company" instead of "group" or w/e. Should all planning documents say "the company", or would another term fit better? Whatever we choose, I'd like to keep it consistent. (edited) @jdg23 Also, just realised that the Disciplinary procedure doc uses a different style from the planning doc template. I'll be using the planning doc template for Code of Conduct until we settle this during the meeting?

Checkpoint date: this evening, around 6pm? Everyone should post how they're getting along so we have time to rearrange ppl in case of changes.

jdg23 02-Feb-19 12:00 PM

Ok. I will make a start at 12:30.

Emails in from DB

izlimix 02-Feb-19 12:14 PM

Points from email:

We don't need to model the unmentioned records yet

The HR director can do whatever HR can do

Don't need to model adding new users, but it needs to be in the implementation

Departments contain different sections

Unsure what he meant by "Allocating reviewers is not related to creating the review document. It happens before the Perform review use case, but the reviewee creates the review document independent of reviewer assignment."

Also, the response for "read past completed review records" is a bit weird.

izlimix 02-Feb-19 02:47 PM

Added a provision on "celebratory actions such as dance moves" under general rules in Meeting Regulations. minutes-template-v1 restored, now in templates folder. Unsure where to place this archived version.

jdg23 02-Feb-19 02:59 PM

Its fine to remain there

jdg23 02-Feb-19 03:01 PM

I need due dates for yesterdays minutes

izlimix 02-Feb-19 03:03 PM

Everything needs to be complete by tomorrow night, so they're due then?

jdg23 02-Feb-19 03:05 PM

Agreed.

izlimix 02-Feb-19 04:00 PM

We might want to add a definition of "practical meetings" under meeting regulations, and move the "job call" to that section.

Just so everyone knows, I think I'll be unreachable from 5:30 to about 8:00 tonight. I've started on the QA document, but formatting rules aren't the easiest thing in the world to write. I know that the class diagram is also incomplete rn, and the scenarios need a slight alteration based on the responses from Miles. If discussion's held on Discord then I'll try to read it after 8pm and complete what I can.

jdg23 02-Feb-19 04:29 PM

Just wanted to bring up some points

- finalise what calendar to use
 - acceptance test
 - test plan doc (+ tests?)
 - agile/scrum/wf methodology
 - ensure file structure on googleD is tidy
 - templates upto date
 - minutes contain some gaps
 - templates upto date
 - date structure on minutes, column on next steps is too narrow for current YYYYMMDD
 - We will need to export documents in PDF for submission

izlimix 02-Feb-19 04:37 PM

About the date structure for minutes, I'm not sure all of them need the exact time specified, since it says date. When time is added, it only adds one line, so I feel like that's acceptable.

Gaps in minutes: I can try and fill those in if you tell me where those gaps are?

@Kazoo2 You wrote a set of guidelines on meeting announcement structure, right? Could I have them for the QA doc?

jdg23 02-Feb-19 04:45 PM

Gaps in minutes:

20190124 QA, Reviews

20190125 Next step due dates, decisions made point 3

20190131 im happy to complete this but im unsure of all decisions made and next steps

20190201 please review next steps ive added

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 05:09 PM

@izlimix they're on the school computer on the desktop so I can't access them.

What needs doing

jdg23 02-Feb-19 05:23 PM

That's no good, do you have remote access to your desktop @Kazoo2

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 05:23 PM

It's not important we'll do it later

As in after the deadline

jdg23 02-Feb-19 05:25 PM

izlimix 02-Feb-19 07:36 PM

Sounds good, but I think we might need to elaborate a bit on what it means specifically for our project

jdg23 02-Feb-19 10:21 PM

Guys can we arrange a quick call to finalise things to do for submission.

Having just gone through the brief with Marin, we need to address some points

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 10:30 PM

Kay guys me and Jamie are planning on hashing out the uml, if you guys could look at gitlab and the bullet points in the brief see if you can cover things we haven't.

We're hoping to do a discord call tomorrow around 12ish to see if everyone gets everything we need done and all that

jdg23 02-Feb-19 10:37 PM

Marin and Jamie

- Complete UML scenarios
- UML Descriptions
- Work on Class diagram

Nicholas and James

- Cover bullet points from brief such as Project management, QA, Reviews, Version control and Test

-> Simply answer the questions

-> Gain a brief understanding of Git so you can write about it in the VC bullet point

-> Test Plan/Acceptance test, i have created a doc but not sure if it is the correct way of doing it. Look at it and let me know. If its ok, please add tests from Use case

Me and Marin can also assist with the test plan. I feel this along with what we have done will warrant a chunk of the marks.

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 10:38 PM

I think the test plan might be a bit off, if you guys remember anything from the slides regarding that stuff it'd be really helpful.

jdg23 02-Feb-19 10:47 PM

The decisions document covers some of the points and can be used as a basis for the write up. The points just need to be elaborated.

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:18 PM

Discord call, noon, tomorrow (Sunday)? I'm okay with that.

jdg23 02-Feb-19 11:19 PM

Agreed

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:23 PM

Test Plan: That looks like a template for a checklist. Do you want to submit a completed copy every time there's a commit? I'm not sure what you want to do with the current test plan.

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 11:24 PM

I was emailing Barnes about that, there's an example test in the brief, think it's meant to be more like that.

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:25 PM

Where's this example test? I don't see in the Stage 2 brief.

"Cover bullet points from brief such as Project management, QA, Reviews, Version control and Test": Do you mean under Decisions, or in their own files, or something else entirely? This sounds like you want another writeup of all the planning docs.

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 11:28 PM

Software tests, fault and bug reporting

In the brief

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:30 PM

So a list of tests that cover the main cases that the client is asking for.

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 11:30 PM

It's more of, if we haven't met the requirements, do the parts we haven't done

Yeah that seems right to me

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:32 PM

So to test the director's "read-everything" permission, I'd test whether they can read their own personal document, a review that they aren't part of, and an authorisation log? (edited)

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 11:32 PM

Seems right yeah.

izlimix 02-Feb-19 11:33 PM

In that case, what we need for this is less of a checklist to be submitted each time, and more just a list of tests that we give an id to, then name those IDs when they fail during a commit.

Kazoo2 02-Feb-19 11:54 PM

Yeah I dunno I emailed Barnes about it

This is what I was asking about

jdg23 03-Feb-19 10:56 PM

Hey guys, what time is the next call?

Valentia 03-Feb-19 10:57 PM

12

izlimix 03-Feb-19 10:57 PM

I'm not done with the test plan yet, but I can call whenever.

Valentia 03-Feb-19 10:57 PM

Or when you finish your job

jdg23 03-Feb-19 10:57 PM

cool 12pm is fine

Me and Marin was just checking as we never noted it

izlimix 04-Feb-19 04:08 AM

@Kazoo2 You can submit the class diagram and we can revise it afterwards?

Kazoo2 04-Feb-19 04:09 AM

I haven't modelled all the functionality

But sure

izlimix 04-Feb-19 04:10 AM

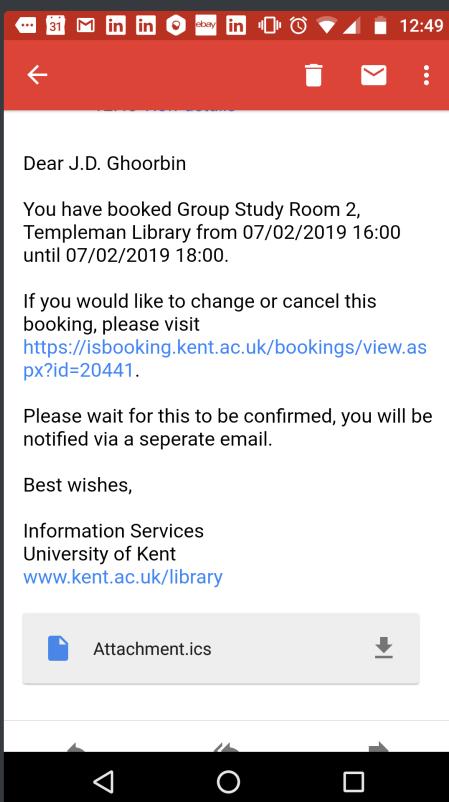

We should really just rest at this point

So please submit what you've got, and we can review it later?

Would you mind joining the voice chat for a bit?

jdg23 05-Feb-19 12:50 PM

Kazoo2 06-Feb-19 03:41 PM

Okay guys I've annotated the brief and updated the notes I took

Please read over the brief and my notes carefully to make sure I didn't miss anything and my notes won't get misinterpreted if we're reading them two weeks from now

Don't assume just because a whole paragraph is in orange that a 7 word sentence covers the whole thing fully.

Remember to look over the use cases too

Valentia 07-Feb-19 08:52 AM

What time are we meeting?

@everyone

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 08:53 AM

scrolls up very slowly

Although it is a break of procedure

We should fix that later

I'm eating now though

Valentia 07-Feb-19 08:53 AM

What time?

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 08:54 AM

Boi

Scroll up

Valentia 07-Feb-19 08:54 AM

Valentia 07-Feb-19 08:55 AM

Thank you

izlimix 07-Feb-19 06:28 PM

Meeting time on Monday: Is 15:00 to 17:00 okay, or would a different time be better?

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 08:41 PM

Seems good?

I thought of jobs for nick and James.

Nick can create a list of tasks that needs accomplishing we can put in a Gantt chart, e.g.

Deliverable 4

-> set up gitlab

-> make a yuconz package and put a main clas in there

Deliverable 3

-> finish class diagram

-> team review

Etc etc

And James can setup gitlab and git on intellij, find out how much of our current files can be transferred to gitlab, if that's good, etc.

So we'll have some vague plan on what to do and one guy who can do tech support if we have issues.

Don't worry if it's quick or easy, just gives you something to do, or if it's annoying as hell.

Also wanna extend Jamie's deadline to Thursday but prefer if like 70% of it is done by Tuesday so we have shit to talk about.

izlimix 07-Feb-19 08:48 PM

I'm alright with trying to set up gitlab on intellij

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 08:49 PM

Okay and we can't do 3pm monday

OS and architecture

I really need to finalise that calendar we have.

It's 1 hour so 4 should be good

izlimix 07-Feb-19 08:50 PM

I can book a room from 4-6, but I've got a pc from 5-6

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 08:50 PM

Oh yeah we had that problem before

We could just do a 1\2 or 1 hour catch-up see how everyone is doing.

Makes it so Jamie chasing people down is less pivotal.

I think I'll be sick tomorrow, it's hard for me to tell now but I feel horrible.

izlimix 07-Feb-19 09:02 PM

Get some rest tonight?

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 09:02 PM

Gonna try

izlimix 07-Feb-19 09:03 PM

I'll book a room for Monday now, just so we have the option, even if we decide to meet up at a different time later~

Kazoo2 07-Feb-19 09:03 PM

Perfect

izlimix 07-Feb-19 09:07 PM

Attachment: usRoomBooking20190211.pdf (123 KB)

Couldn't book a single room with a pc from 1600 to 1800, so I booked a booth instead

jdg23 08-Feb-19 03:40 PM

I have left notes in the updates section. Assuming nobody has checked discord all day. I will send the email to DB by 18:00 if I don't hear from you. Please look at questions for Miles with comments or structure for sending. Thanks

izlimix 08-Feb-19 04:15 PM

Minutes look good, though I modified it slightly bc typos

Email to David looks clear. It just needs to be renamed to letterDavid instead of letterMiles.

Renamed

Can I ask if questions for Miles is also a doc in google drive, or if that still needs to be written up? Can't find it.

jdg23 08-Feb-19 05:01 PM

Hasn't been written up yet. The key notes of the questions is in the minutes

jdg23 09-Feb-19 12:22 PM

Two questions from the minutes to ask miles:

- Does the company have an internal network (Network/Shared storage device) in place where you can share files (exclusive of sharing via email)?
- Following the last question, if this internal network exists, does it require your users to log in to the system to gain access, possibly using a user name and password?

See highlighted text in the image from the first presentation in Grimond.

Two emails 20190209a and 20190209b up for review/changes before sending.

Should the two questions be included given the snapshot below?

Human Resources

- The work of the Human Resources Department is carried out entirely using paper files, although it does use e-mail for correspondence.
- The reasons for this are historic. When Yuconz was established by the four directors, HR was not considered to be important.
- Having developed into a larger organisation, it is now deemed beneficial to commission an IT-based solution for some activities of the department.

izlimix 09-Feb-19 12:36 PM

I would say yes, considering that while HR might not have used the network, it might still be in place for other departments

Also, I feel like the "does it require your users to log in" question doesn't seem to have a direct link to what we're doing

The reviewer question in 20190209b overlaps heavily with the ones in 20190209a

jdg23 09-Feb-19 01:25 PM

Can you or Nick make those small amendments and I'll send it today.

izlimix 09-Feb-19 03:27 PM

20190209a grammar edited slightly

Will think of a way to edit 20190209b on my way up the hill

@everyone David's updated the brief, so use case scenario descriptions are part of deliverable 1 (Documents.zip)

izlimix 09-Feb-19 04:20 PM

@jdg23 I've written a rather clunky question for 20190209b, and I'm hoping it isn't too technical? Not entirely sure if it covers everything to do w/ the server.

The use cases section still overlaps with the first email, so I'm tempted to remove it Going to put this down again for now. If there're other Qs then I can write those?

jdg23 10-Feb-19 11:45 AM

I will have a look through it and if everyone's happy we can send it before 2pm.

izlimix 10-Feb-19 01:51 PM

jdg23 10-Feb-19 03:59 PM

@Kazoo2 You made any progress with the class diagram?

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 01:01 PM

I think so?

I'm a bit confused I remember needing to do a ton of stuff but it was only 20ish minutes of work

I think it's because I didn't do all the comments and constraints I was planning

Also some stuff seemed weird and we might have to go over it

I'll upload it now but it's near identical, four new methods or something

Might wanna detain you after the meeting Jamie and try hashing it out a little better, but we will need to change it before the deadline anyway to accommodate the changes we're expected to make in the use cases.

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 02:58 PM

For some reason there just isn't a 3pm to Canterbury east

It's 2pm then 4pm trains

I could show up but it'll be so late James will be gone by the time I get there.

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 03:00 PM

I've already got my tickets and I'm at the station but I'm not sure it's even worth going Waste of £11 but saves around 2 hours 20 minutes of my time.
Not sure what to do boys, Jamie and Nick gonna stick around after James is gone?

izlimix 11-Feb-19 03:03 PM

I can come back for a bit after 6 if that helps?

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 03:04 PM

I'll pop up and Jamie can just catch me up on what's been going on

Valentia 11-Feb-19 03:04 PM

I can't go past 6
I've got other commitments

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 03:04 PM

Fucking sitting here for another hour oof
Guess I'll do the Erlang assignment on my phone.
It's actually 3 hours of time with the waiting.
Fuck me maybe I should just go back, such a waste man.
I'm gonna go home it's not worth the time.

Valentia 11-Feb-19 03:11 PM

Cool coo

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 03:12 PM

I'll spend a couple hours looking over shit and trying to be fully up to speed and have some talking points for tomorrow

izlimix 11-Feb-19 03:23 PM

So during the workshop?

Also, David's sent feedback for stage 2. 9/10, mainly issues with gantt chart tasks being too large, templates for code and comments, concern about whether majority review is good enough, and suggesting using git for document version control

Kazoo2 11-Feb-19 03:34 PM

That's actually amazing I'm thrilled
Yes during the workshop
Is the deadline end of the week?

izlimix 11-Feb-19 04:01 PM

The version of the brief I've got saved says 8:55am Monday, 18th Feb

I'll check in a min

@jdg23 still up for meeting?

Dear Miles,

We would like to ask some questions about a few points discussed in our recent meeting. The questions discussed were as follows:

RE: LOGIN/PERMISSIONS

From our understanding, it appears that when logging in, you select a level of authorisation/role. The user must log out and log back in to choose a different level/role (Choosing authorisation role when logging on).

- Is this how you want it implemented? When you log in, you pick a role?
- If you become assigned to review an employee, must you log in as a reviewer or will you still log in as a manager/director/etc?
- When you log in, can you pick a reviewer role so that you can read people's past review records and sign off on your reviews?
- If reviewer is a role you can pick, then when you log in as a reviewer, can you see all the records of all the people you are reviewing? Or should you specify which employee you're reviewing when logging in?

For the given scenario, could you answer the question that follows: ManagerA is called on as a second reviewer for EmployeeA and EmployeeB and this manager doesn't usually supervise each of those people. So, when he logs in as manager, he won't be able to read their past review records.

- When he logs in, does he log in as reviewer for EmployeeA or reviewer for EmployeeB?
- Does he pick which one (not ideal) or when he logs in as a reviewer, can he see all of them that he is currently reviewing?

Thank you for your time and we gladly await your response.

Kind regards,

izlimix 12-Feb-19 10:33 AM

No response, but the response to the 2nd email covered most of these points

jdg23 12-Feb-19 11:00 AM

My intention was to resend and hope for a response in time for our meeting.

Minutes 20190212 altered. Changed date from 13th to 12th, several minor typos, and added two comments on Review and Version Control. Please resolve the comments when you're free?

Might want to separate the "everyone sets up gitlab" and "jd556 writes instructions" tasks?

izlimix 14-Feb-19 01:17 AM

Wrote Gitlab-Setup, tentatively placed top-level of the Google Drive

Please tell me if any of it seems unclear or poorly worded.

Kazoo2 14-Feb-19 02:45 AM

I did four emails but I noticed some of them were the wrong ones and some of the most recent ones were done already?

I'll sort it out tomorrow

Found a nice set of Java coding standards we can use a template too

<HTTPS://GitHub.com/Twitter/commons/blob/master/src/java/com/Twitter/common/styleguide.md>

Well it's the right link word for word but it's 404ing

"code style guidelines java" into google

The third one.

izlimix 14-Feb-19 01:18 PM

Quick Q: so we have a booth booked from 1430 to 1630 and a room booked from 1700 to 1900? Meeting from 4-6, with half an hr trying to find a second room?

Also, when we get to file accessing and modification, we need to consider concurrency and multiple people reading/modifying the same doc at once. Could consider a simple lock/edit/unlock process, or sth more robust when we get to that~

Valentia 14-Feb-19 03:56 PM

Where are people?

I've got low battery

izlimix 14-Feb-19 03:58 PM

Omw to templeman, will be in booth 4 until 1630, then room 1 from 1700

Valentia 14-Feb-19 03:59 PM

Can you send booth confirmation?

Kazoo2 14-Feb-19 04:06 PM

Meeting wasn't put in the meeting schedule, I had assumed the schedule was 5-7 based off the booked time.

I know we discussed something about meeting earlier but I have difficulty remembering that.

izlimix 14-Feb-19 04:06 PM

I asked earlier bc I was unsure what time to put in the schedule channel

Kazoo2 14-Feb-19 04:07 PM

That doesn't resolve what time we're actually meeting.

I say to leave it off till 5

Unless there's something I'm not considering

izlimix 14-Feb-19 04:08 PM

I'd prefer to end by 6, but I'm ok with starting at 5 since that's when we have the room

Unsure why Jamie asked for a booth from 1500-1600, though

Kazoo2 14-Feb-19 04:21 PM

Okay I guess we'll finish at 6

Meeting 5 to 6

Issue with using csv: the java file class doesn't like relative paths. I could try to embed the data if it's provided as a jar, but then I wouldn't be able to write to it.

We're providing it as a zip with the external files included though, so that might work?

Deliverable point 4 suggests that it's going to be imported into a standard IDE, e.g. IntelliJ, so we can test whether it'll work in our copy of IntelliJ?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 12:45 AM

Sorry I read this when you posted but forgot to reply.

I think given the time constraints hard coding is an acceptable solution.

Unless the solutions you suggested are functional in which case we can run tests on our machines.

izlimix 16-Feb-19 09:29 AM

I'm going to try and put test values in the src folder and access them, if that doesn't work then I'll figure sth else out

izlimix 16-Feb-19 12:02 PM

Valentia 16-Feb-19 12:27 PM

I'm leaving as I'm on a coach

Good luck with the rest of the meeting

izlimix 16-Feb-19 01:56 PM

Problem: absolute file paths only kinda work. In IntelliJ, specifying the pathname as "src/useracc.txt" runs fine, but if you try to compile it in the console then it'll look for the file under "src/src/useracc.txt" (since authenticator is in src)

Though in intellij it puts the compiled versions in out, which doesn't have a src folder, so I'm not sure how intellij is resolving it. Also, I keep have connectivity issues with raptor, so trying to compile everything and test it there's a pain

I can't seem to import the unit tests correctly

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:08 PM

Not sure how to fix the filepath, since I'm not sure if I'm doing sth wrong, and whether the code will be executed in intelliJ @Kazoo2 what do you mean?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:09 PM

And I'm not sure about how to solve your problem

I can't import org.junit.assert

Etc

Even having imported the library

I might push the test class and save it for some other time

I've also got a different problem

My mum and brothers birthday celebration is today
So I'm a nick V2 after 3pm

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:23 PM

@Kazoo2 you might need to download junit's package and put it in the same src folder?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:24 PM

I added it as an external library and it didn't work
I'm going to see which junit bluejays uses

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:28 PM

IntelliJ has a section on configuring testing libraries?
I'm assuming that you're trying to import org.junit.Assert for the Assert class~

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:30 PM

Yeah where's the section?

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:30 PM

<https://www.jetbrains.com/help/idea/configuring-testing-libraries.html>

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:32 PM

Oh yeah I did that and it didn't work

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:33 PM

Is it refusing to compile or just crashing at run-time?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:34 PM

Can't find "assert" on the import

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:34 PM

I'm guessing it's the junit 5 lib?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:36 PM

I think it's 4
5 uses Jupiter
Don't worry about it focus on the access and storage of logins
I kinda want our tests to generate new logins

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:37 PM

I can make addLogin(username, pw, role) and removeLogin(username) methods if I can get the filepath to work?

Maybe it's import static org.junit.Assert.* (edited)

Or that line without the .* at the end

<https://junit.org/junit4/javadoc/4.8/org/junit/Assert.html>

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:44 PM

I fixed it

Although it might only work for me

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:44 PM

Awesome, how?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:45 PM

We may need to import the whole intelliJ project into git at some point

Alt+enter on the import statement

Something else, I'm going to put "all non-final variables and non-constructor methods are to be written in camel case"

In our document

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:46 PM

That's alright

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:46 PM

So like instead of Authenticate, do authenticate

The method name I mean

All your stuff seems camel case already except for that so that's cool

izlimix 16-Feb-19 02:48 PM

Didn't realise I had that typo, thanks

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 02:55 PM

Okay well I pushed to experimental the changes

jdg23 16-Feb-19 04:08 PM

@Kazoo2 What?

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 08:17 PM

Sorry, did you scan those notes we made?

Jamie said he couldn't find them.

A screenshot from your phone would be good, Jamie just wanted to draft up a flow diagram of it at some point

@izlimix

izlimix 16-Feb-19 08:39 PM

Which notes? The ones written on Thursday were scanned under minutes/handwritten Attachment: 20190214-minutes-handwritten.pdf (205.2 KB)

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 08:40 PM

Oh perfect, thank you!

Jamie couldn't find them

izlimix 16-Feb-19 08:40 PM

Sorry for the late reply, was held up on my end

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 08:41 PM

I'm pretty tied up too no worries

Kazoo2 16-Feb-19 10:53 PM

Okay I'm exhausted, but I haven't done any work today so time to start.

Kazoo2 17-Feb-19 12:04 AM

Can someone PLEASE rename saca.zip to ClassDiagramV1 ... Or at least something not stupid

I'd do it myself but this is my third commit and it's still not bloody working

Also we can't view docx files directly from got or edit them?

I thought that was supported

Valentia 17-Feb-19 12:15 AM

You can you just need git bash

Aka git for windows

Kazoo2 17-Feb-19 12:17 AM

So like clone it to a folder and not view it on the website?

jdg23 17-Feb-19 11:09 AM

For this "saca.zip" file situation, I will download it rename and upload to Git. Unless anybody objects

izlimix 17-Feb-19 11:13 AM

You might want to try the git mv command

(On your machine)

git mv saca.zip ClassDiagramv1.zip

jdg23 17-Feb-19 11:15 AM

Thanks

This will need to be altered by somebody to reflect feedback from DJB. How this will be addressed/reworded was not discussed in the meeting. I'm working on the changes VC, GP, and revision. Let me know if you plan to make changes.

Kazoo2 17-Feb-19 07:01 PM

@everyone 7pm meeting, after this is the 9pm one and we done.

jdg23 17-Feb-19 07:16 PM

Here are the primary differences between using `System.out` / `System.err` / `System.in` and `System.console()`:

112

- `System.console()` returns null if your application is not run in a terminal (though you can handle this in your application)
- `System.console()` provides methods for reading password without echoing characters
- `System.out` and `System.err` use the default platform encoding, while the `Console` class output methods use the console encoding

This latter behaviour may not be immediately obvious, but code like this can demonstrate the difference:

```
public class ConsoleDemo { public static void main(String[] args) {
        String[] data = {"\u0250\0250\0250\0250\0250\0250",
                        "\u0250\0250Hello\0250",
                        "\u02514\02500\02500\02500\02500\02518"};
        for (String s : data) {
            System.out.println(s);
        }
        for (String s : data) {
            System.console().writer().println(s);
        }
    }
}
```

On my Windows XP which has a system encoding of windows-1252 and a default console encoding of IBM850, this code will write:

??????
Hello?
??????
Hello
```

Note that this behaviour depends on the console encoding being set to a different encoding to the system encoding. This is the default behaviour on Windows for a bunch of historical reasons.

This is the handwritten notes from this meeting, I'll try to upload to gitlab by tonight

Kazoo2 01-Mar-19 12:06 AM

@everyone Jamie has os Tomorrow and he can't go to his event.

We originally booked the meeting 2-4 because I didnt mind missing os but Jamie doesn't wanna miss it.

When you guys wake up if it would potentially be possible meeting 1-2, 3-4 or just 3-4 or have the first half without Jamie or something.

technically speaking a meeting overlapping a lecture he is allowed to skip without reason, don't think he would do that and he definitely wouldn't want to if he did, but I'd prefer if we could avoid making him make that choice.

izlimix 01-Mar-19 12:56 AM

I'm fine with 3-4.

Kazoo2 01-Mar-19 01:24 AM

Okay 3-4

@jdg23 if you could update the schedule when you get up

izlimix 01-Mar-19 01:32 AM

@jdg23 If you could also update the room to group study room 3, thanks~

jdg23 01-Mar-19 08:23 AM

Schedule amended

Kazoo2 01-Mar-19 11:23 AM

@everyone is it alright if I just attend through discord? I know it's a bit shitty but I've already missed all lectures today and travelling 4 hours for a 1 hour group meeting is a lot of effort.

Plus I've just banged my toe and I'm not sure how much it'll hurt going 4ish miles on it.

izlimix 01-Mar-19 11:24 AM

@Kazoo2 I'm alright w/ it as long as you push whatever you do to the code semi-regularly~

Valentia 01-Mar-19 11:26 AM

I'm cool with it

Valentia 01-Mar-19 01:59 PM

Where we meeting?

Valentia 01-Mar-19 02:59 PM

James and I are currently outside TS1 at seats

@jdg23 Join us there

jdg23 01-Mar-19 03:02 PM

Where is TS1

Valentia 01-Mar-19 03:02 PM

Where you can sit outside TLT

We're in the corner by the glass wall

jdg23 01-Mar-19 03:06 PM

I've just gone to both exits

Valentia 01-Mar-19 03:06 PM

In the corner of the front exit

Follow the wall

jdg23 01-Mar-19 03:07 PM

Your directions are shocking

Valentia 01-Mar-19 03:07 PM

Okay you know the back entrance of TLT

Literally there

Kazoo2 01-Mar-19 10:36 PM

@Valentia I want you to find out how to record the discord logs.

Valentia 01-Mar-19 10:39 PM

I already know

We have an example

I can send it to you if you'd like. It saves as a HTML file

But can be converted

Kazoo2 02-Mar-19 06:54 PM

Sure send it to me.

Anyway sorry it's late but @everyone we're doing reviews this stage, everyone send me your completed review before submission and I'll convert it to docx, add it to the zip, add it to the git, etc.

The reviews will go like this Marin > James > Jamie > Nick > Marin.

Big one reviews little one.

Be honest, I don't want to see any 10/10s and if anyone gets any fields under 4/10 we'll review them in the group meeting next week.

Valentia 03-Mar-19 11:24 AM

@everyone we need to do a call later today. Is everyone good for 2pm?

izlimix 03-Mar-19 01:39 PM

I'd prefer closer to 2:30pm, but 2 is ok

Valentia 03-Mar-19 01:40 PM

2:30 is okay
